RVers & FREELANCERS ~ EMERGENCY PLAN CHECKLIST

For evacuation, have 1 week supply ~ In general, have 3-6 months supply

EMERGENCY EVACUATION PLAN:

- _ Put your plans in writing
- _ Make a plan for every disaster: you might face: wildfire, tornado, hurricane, winter storm, summer storm, hot weather, earthquake, flood, and the post-disaster recovery that might catch you off guard.
- _ Assign duties to specific people
- _ Have a specific destination in mind and make reservations.
- _ Pick a destination a safe distance from the danger
- _ Know where the nearest shelter is when there's no time to escape
- _ Routes, destination, alternate routes—first choices may be crowded, washed out
- _ Current maps of the areas you plan to travel through
- _ Designate specific places to meet ASAP after learning of a disaster
- _ Designate at least one, if not more emergency contact people
- _ Know where human and animal shelters are (pets aren't allowed at shelters)
- _ Keep your gas or diesel tank full
- _ Hold mock drills so everyone will be comfortable under pressure
- _ Stay tuned to NOAA radio
- _ Put your plan into writing

EMERGENCY SUPPLIES:

- _ NOAA Weather radio. Battery or Crank powered emergency radio
- _ Two-way radios
- _ Fresh batteries in your emergency kit electronics
- _ Extra batteries.

- _ Food nonperishable (canned, emergency rations, MREs, freeze dried)
- _ Prescription medications; medical treatment items
- _ Water: about a gallon / day / person.
- _ A can opener or knife to open these.
- _ Flashlight.
- _ Candles
- _ Waterproof matches.
- _ Cell phone with chargers.
- _ Extra keys.
- _ First aid kit.
- _ Emergency tools, multi-tool.
- _ Emergency blankets.
- _ Important personal documents and medical information.
- _ Proof of identity and address.
- _ Emergency contact information, family, friends and doctors
- _ Insulated waterproof boots (cold weather)
- _ Gloves, socks, hats/ski masks that cover ears and nose
- _ Extra blankets

PET PLAN:

- _ Have a pet carrier and a leash
- _ Keep pets' vaccinations current and documentation handy
- _ Pet food and enough water for each, preferably moist canned food
- _ Pet ID with chip number
- _ Vaccination records
- _ Current photo of each pet, preferably with you in the photo
- _ A can opener
- _ Pet bowls
- _ Proper sized carrier
- _ Litter box
- _ Pet medications and first aid supplies
- _ Special instructions about needs or behaviors
- _ Collar with ID and contact information
- _ Leash
- _ Muzzle—Even normally gentle dogs may display fear or aggression during or after a disaster
- _ Familiar beds and toys are comforting, and may reduce stress

Right now FEMA is urging people to be proactive about disaster preparedness. The more aware you are of the risks in your region the more likely you will prepare well, and survive. Below are ways to keep up and stock up on essentials.
